INTRODUCTION

PLEASE NOTE:

Alan prefers that his video introduction, which was provided via email, is played in lieu of this introduction being read aloud.

In the event his video introduction cannot be played, below are the words to be read by the person introducing Alan at your event.

Our speaker today spent 15 years working as a Basketball Performance Coach... alongside the highest performing players on the planet. People like Kevin Durant, Steph Curry, and Kobe Bryant!

He now teaches people the same strategies that elite athletes use to perform at a world-class level.

He is also the author of the book Raise Your Game, which helps organizations improve productivity and achieve higher levels of success.

A passionate father of three, he plays zone defense... and never lets his kids win at anything... EVER!

Please help me welcome... Alan Stein, Jr.
