

ERIC TERMUENDE

BIOGRAPHY

Eric Termuende is an award-winning speaker on leadership, culture, and the future of work, the author of Rethink Work, and a trusted advisor to numerous companies and associations. His research into the DNA of top performing workplaces reveals the secrets of exceptional leadership and building resilient, forward-thinking teams.

Eric has worked with leading brands like Amazon, Coca-Cola, IBM, Zoom, and Toyota, helping them embrace the future with confidence and optimism. His expertise has been featured in Forbes, Fast Company, and Inc., cementing his reputation as a global thought leader shaping the future of work.

As Co-Founder of NoW of Work, a leading innovation and leadership consulting organization, Eric drives workplace innovation and has been recognized as one of American Express's Top 100 Emerging Innovators. His influence extends beyond the stage, helping organizations navigate change and build thriving cultures.

Eric's keynotes combine entertainment, actionable insights, and practical strategies. Audiences consistently praise his talks as inspiring and immediately impactful, leaving them equipped to create and excel in the workplaces of tomorrow.

For booking information please contact Michelle Joyce:

Michelle@MichelleJoyce.com • 704-965-2339 • www.MichelleJoyce.com